13 CONVERSATIONS ABOUT ONE THING

MATTHEW MCCONAUGHEY, JOHN TURTURRO, CLEA DUVAL, AMY IRVING, ALAN ARKIN
DIRECTED BY JILL SPRECHER
RATED R; 94 MINUTES; DRAMA

A man approaching middle age decides to change his life. A rising young attorney's plans are thrown into disarray as the result of a single act. A woman faces her husband's infidelity. An envious businessman seeks revenge on a cheerful coworker and an optimistic young cleaning woman awaits a miracle. Just the ebb and flow of daily New York life: chaotic, isolated, diffuse. Or is it? How can we know what effect we have on a passing stranger? What if the smallest gesture can change the course of someone's life? Perhaps fate is in fact a product of the choices we make-how we choose to accept seemingly random events, whether or not we opt to see the interconnectedness of things. Perhaps, too, there really is a light at the end of the tunnel, even if we can't see it yet.

BEE SEASON

RICHARD GERE, JULIETTE BINOCHE, FLORA CROSS, MAX MINGHELLA, KATE BOSWORTH, COREY FISCHER, SAM ZUCKERMAN, JOAN MANKIN
DIRECTED BY SCOTT MCGEHEE, DAVID SIEGEL
RATED PG-13; 104 MINUTES; DRAMA

Eleven-year-old Eliza Nauman (Flora Cross) is on her way to becoming the national spelling bee champion, much to the delight of her heretofore somewhat dismissive father, Saul (Richard Gere). A professor of religion who wrote his thesis on Jewish mysticism, Saul has previously shown more interest in Eliza's older brother, Aaron (Max Minghella), a serious-minded young scholar and cello player. In what soon becomes clear is his customary manner, Saul takes control of Eliza's spelling career, and focuses on her to the exclusion of the rest of his family. Meanwhile, his wife, Miriam (Juliette Binoche), is quietly facing a spiritual crisis, and unbeknownst to her family is engaging in petty thievery in her quest for beauty and salvation. Saul is unwilling to admit that anything is wrong-and thus out of his control-while the unmoored Aaron turns to the beatific Chali (Kate Bosworth), a hare Krishna, for spiritual sustenance and comfort. As Saul attempts to tap Eliza's uncanny knack with words and create a pipeline to God according to the tenets of an ancient Kabbalah scholar, Eliza blames herself for everyone's troubles. As the final competition draws nigh and the family disintegrates, however, it might just be that Eliza is the only one who can save them.

BABEL

CATE BLANCHETT, BRAD PITT
