LUXURY GOES EXPLORING

WELCOME TO THE "MEDITERRANEAN DISCOVERY" CRUISE

On behalf of Regent Seven Seas Cruises, Captain Knut Hansen, the Officers, Staff and Crew welcome you aboard Seven Seas Voyager.

The ships of Regent Seven Seas Cruises offer voyages of exploration and discovery to over 300 ports on six continents, including Antarctica. Our luxury vessels are designed for guests numbering in the hundreds rather than the thousands. The ambiance on board is personal, individual, accommodating - "upscale but not uptight." And all ships share certain distinctions in accommodations, service, dining and amenities that elevate them to the lofty vantage point of our enviable six stars.

After winning numerous awards over the years by the readers of Travel + Leisure magazine and also by the readers of Conde Nast Traveler, Regent Seven Seas Cruises (formerly Radisson Seven Seas Cruises) has earned a leadership role in the 6-star cruise industry. Our fleet of luxury ships provides a limited number of guests the highest standard of cruising excellence combined with exciting opportunities for discovery around the world.

At Regent Seven Seas Cruises, it is our objective to provide an ultra-luxury cruise experience that also represents true value. In keeping with this philosophy, our voyages feature many enhancements, benefits or special events on a complimentary basis or at a minimal cost.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises is recognized as one of the world's premier luxury lines with features such as 6-star, all-suite, all-balcony ships, Le Cordon Bleu menus and superior space and service ratios. However, even more compelling than the quality of our ships is the adventurous spirit of RSSC - the imaginative itineraries, unique shore excursions and land tours, and the other innovative services we offer discriminating guests. RSSC's new Travel Concierge, features personalized services and programs that enable you to travel at your own pace and explore those things which interest you the most. You can visit the Taj Mahal by private jet, for example, go on an eco-adventure to the Panatanal in South America or even have us custom-design your own tour. From unique, pre-bookable adventures ashore to exclusive pre- and post-cruise land programs, the world is quite literally in the palm of your hand when you travel with RSSC.

A DESCRIPTION OF OUR SHIPBOARD DRESS CODES

Shipboard attire ranges from casual to informal. Casual wear is appropriate for daytime on board the ship or ashore, and consists of resort-style outfits. Bermuda type shorts are suitable for breakfast and lunch in the Compass Rose Restaurant and La Veranda Restaurant. Shorts are not appropriate after 6:00 p.m. in any of the public rooms or lounges. We kindly ask you not to wear bathing suits in the Restaurants and Lounges at any time. Evening attire can be either country club casual or informal. The suggested evening dress code is listed in your Passages daily newsletter and applies throughout the evening. Please note that La Veranda restaurant features casual attire for dinner, while the Signatures restaurant requires at least informal attire.

COUNTRY CLUB CASUAL: Smart casual attire, open neck shirts and slacks for gentlemen. Slacks, skirts and blouses for ladies.
INFORMAL: Jackets are required for gentlemen; ties are optional. Dresses, matching separates or pant suits are appropriate for ladies.
FORMAL: Tuxedo (alternatively a dark business suit) for gentlemen; evening gown, cocktail dresses or appropriate formal evening attire for ladies.

PLEASE NOTE:
Terry cotton bathrobes, provided for your comfort whilst aboard Seven Seas Voyager, are not appropriate in the ship's public rooms and lounges.

SEVEN SEAS VOYAGER INTRODUCES YOU TO FIVE UNIQUE DINING EXPERIENCES!

Regent
SEVEN SEAS CRUISES

Creating a fine dining establishment is no simple task. It requires the imagination & creativity of an inspired chef, an ambience that is both tasteful & comfortable & the commitment of a staff totally committed to offering only the best to their discerning clientele. On board Seven Seas Voyager we have created, not just one, but five separate restaurants that aspire to these highest of standards. Let us introduce you to them!

Signatures

Superbly elegant restaurant, located adjacent to the Horizon Lounge on Deck 5, Signatures is one of two restaurants at sea (the other is aboard Seven Seas Mariner) operated under the auspices of chefs of the famed Le Cordon Bleu France's pre-eminent culinary academy of Paris. The menu is classic à La Carte of traditional French-accented selections enhanced by an ever changing roster of inspired delectations collected from several separate styles of cuisine pioneered by Le Cordon Bleu chefs. The menu is inspired not merely by classic favorites but also from the latest menus of France's Michelin-starred restaurants & the furthest lands bordering the Seven Seas. Classically French, of course, but also a worldly mélange of regional, nouvelle & fusion fare and therefore we are not able to accommodate alterations from this menu for special requests. This elegant venue is only open for dinner and the Dress Code is always INFORMAL. On FORMAL nights, however, FORMAL Dress Code applies. Reservations can be made today between 1:30 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. in the Compass Rose Restaurant or any other day in the Compass Rose Restaurant during breakfast and lunch hours.

Latitudes

For the first time at sea, an intimate Asian influenced restaurant featuring an open galley where our talented Chefs prepare an Indochine Menu based on Vietnamese food with modern French Cooking techniques (only on the first evening). Please note that in order to ensure the authenticity and quality of the recipes, we are unfortunately unable to accommodate alterations from the menus or special requests. Reservations are available for these events between 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. The Restaurant is Located on Deck 5 mid-ship and is open exclusively for dinner. Guests are reminded that smoking is NOT permitted in this venue. Reservations can be made today between 1:30 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. in the Compass Rose Restaurant or any other day in the Compass Rose Restaurant during breakfast and lunch hours.

COMPASS ROSE RESTAURANT

The Compass Rose Restaurant is the principal à la carte restaurant on board Seven Seas Voyager and offers guests an all-enveloping range of menus at breakfast, lunch & dinner in an atmosphere that is both warmly inviting & elegant. The choices will range from traditional favorites, to dishes that are at the cutting edge of contemporary cuisine and reflect the cosmopolitan background and training of our Chef de Cuisine. In addition to the myriad of choices that will change on a daily basis the Compass Rose menu will also offer a 'Well Being' menu for the health-conscious and a daily choice of more simply prepared dishes, as well as Vegetarian dishes. Located on Deck 4 mid-ship, this elegant restaurant offers single, open seating dining, allowing you to dine when, where and with whom you choose. Reservations cannot be accepted; all seating is assigned on a first-come, first-serve basis.

La Veranda

La Veranda offers you a buffet-style breakfast and lunch that you can enjoy either, Al Fresco on it's outside terrace or in air-conditioned comfort inside. In the evenings the port side of La Veranda is transformed into a Mediterranean Bistro or Italian Steakhouse of considerable charm and unique character. Acknowledging the current fascination with the healthy and flavorful cuisine of the Mediterranean the chefs in La Veranda derive their inspiration for La Veranda's menus from the entire Mediterranean basin with a wide range of antipasto, cheeses and entrées from Spain, France, Italy, Greece, and North Africa. The atmosphere in La Veranda reflects the intrinsic style of the restaurant - elegantly casual and relaxed but with service standards that are uniquely Regent Seven Seas Cruises. La Veranda is located on Deck 11. Reservations are not required nor accepted and the Dress Code is Country Club Casual every evening.

Pool Grill

The Pool Grill, located on Deck 11, Aft, is a casual area on deck where you can enjoy a selection of hamburgers, hot dogs with all the trimmings, salads and sandwiches or perhaps wander over to our barbecue where our chef will grill some skewered meat or some succulent freshly caught fish on days at sea. Lunch by the pool is a lovely way to take your noonday repast without breaking up your day. The Pool Grill is open daily, subject of course to the whims of the weather.

REGENT signature cellars

Regent Signature Cellars is a private wine club created exclusively for Seven Seas Society Members that gives access to the most sought after premium wines from the world's most exclusive wineries. You are automatically enrolled as a Seven Seas Society Member after taking your first voyage with Regent. Both on board and from a special website, Members can shop from an assortment of limited production wines from top wineries, special purchases of select high-end wines, and from emerging but little known wineries. While here on board, look for the special Regent Signature Cellars icon on a limited number of wines, and once you are home, look at the website at www.RegentSignatureCellars.com.

GUEST RELATIONS MANAGER

KYLIE FARELL

Kylie originally hails from Sydney, Australia, however her love for travel and meeting people has taken her around the world. After completing her studies at the International School of Hotel Management in Australia, Kylie obtained a University Degree in Hotel and Tourism Management. Thereafter, gaining extensive practical experience at the Park Hyatt Sydney and other leading hotels in Australia.

Kylie's first taste of life on the high seas was in 2001 at the Front Desk as one of our Receptionists and later as Concierge. As Guest Relations Manager aboard Seven Seas Voyager, Kylie is on board to help guests with any concerns, special onboard requests and ensures of a great cruise experience. Kylie can be found at the Guest Relations Manager Desk, in the Atrium on Deck 5, during the hours listed on the back page of your Passages daily newsletter. If you require immediate assistance please dial "0".

COMPUTER INSTRUCTOR

WAYNE KEDDLE

While attending university in Canada, Wayne worked for a small computer company selling and repairing computers. He also attended Learning Tree International for specific Microsoft courses earning the Microsoft designation MCSE with Windows. After graduating with a Bachelor of Computer Science, Wayne began consulting, eventually owning his own computer consulting company in the capital city of Canada.

It was doing well but being tired of commuting in Toronto traffic, Wayne decided to find something new and so began searching for unconventional jobs. Selling his client base, Wayne eventually joined a small cruise line sailing in the Caribbean while working as systems manager. That was a year and a half ago. Now onboard Seven Seas Voyager, Wayne is enjoying passing on his computer expertise to our guests while traveling around the world.

You are invited to sit in on any of the computer classes to pick up tips and hints about a variety of popular computer programs, or if you have specific questions, Wayne is available to help everyday, per the hours listed here in the daily Passages.

TRAVEL CONCIERGE

A MESSAGE FROM TRAVEL CONCIERGE MANAGER

We at Regent strive to make the difference for our guests and want to offer you the opportunity to explore our ports of call in your way. To this end we have started making changes, gone is the shore excursion desk replaced by the team of Travel Concierge, headed by the Travel Concierge Manager.

Now we don't claim we can offer you the concierge services of a static hotel desk where the destination doesn't change and years of working in the same location brings a wealth of built up knowledge. What we can promise you is that our on board team have years of travel experience and research in ports and tours, we also do our utmost to gather the best ground operators and local experts to help us provide you with current and local information. We ask in depth questions and make sure information is as current as possible.

Our aim is to create a community around the Travel Concierge desk of information exchange and discourse about our ports of call, the people we meet, the local cultures we will be exposed, the relationships we will create and the fond memories we will bring back with us.

We face an interesting challenge in that we deal with over 300 ports all unique and all with their own ways of operating and approach to customer service. We of course demand the best and that can vary port to port. You will never hear one of the team overselling an excursion; we will always be frank and honest about the quality. Occasionally guides will have accents, buses will have forced air instead of air conditioning and roads will be bumpy, but as travelers we know what is important, and that is what lies outside the window, what we see, hear and smell for our selves.

Come say hello to the Travel Concierge Team, our aim is to help you enjoy the port in the best light and in your own way whatever your desire, be it a coach tour, a small group adventure, a private van or just want to do your own thing.

With the compliments of the Regent Travel Concierge

Regent Seven Seas Cruises is happy to partner with Fodor's to bring you useful port information guides and maps. Handy to take ashore, they provide you with an orientation of the city and some of the sightseeing highlights along with useful facts.

Going ashore independently

The Travel Concierge desk takes pride in its ability to help our independent guests. The Concierge will help you to make private arrangements and suggest itineraries for independent exploration. If you just want to do your own thing and grab a cab or walk ashore, again the Concierge is more than happy to help with information and useful tips on the local area. The Travel Concierge Desk will also be happy to make dinner or lunch reservations at local restaurants. If you don't have a recommendation the Travel Concierge will have some suggestions.

Shuttle Bus Services:

In select ports Regent Seven Seas will provide a complimentary shuttle bus service. It has to be stressed this operates on a first come first served basis, and subject to local traffic conditions. Buses will leave when filled and it is never recommended to take the last bus on the schedule. The shuttle bus service is to augment local transportation and not meant as the alternative. For true flexibility the Concierge will be happy to provide information on taxis and local public transportation. Ports where this service will be offered and schedules of the bus service will be posted at the Travel Concierge

TRAVEL CONCIERGE MANAGER

PHIL BUTTERWORTH

Phil Butterworth comes to us from the "Land Down-under". Like many young Australians, Phil had the urge to explore the wider world and after high school moved to Sweden as a Rotary Exchange Student to promote cross-cultural communication from a youth perspective. After returning to Australia, Phil moved to Canberra, Australia's capital city, and completed a double degree in Politics and Languages at the Australian National University. The urge to travel and explore had still not subsided, so the move to Sydney was made and Phil began his career with Radisson Hotels at the Radisson Hotel & Suites, Sydney. A small business hotel in the city center, Phil worked his way through the Front Office Department to Assistant Manager. To be in Sydney during the 2000 Olympics was an incredible experience; the atmosphere, the sights and sounds all made the city a vibrant and exciting place to live and work, and Seven Seas Navigator (in Sydney on charter) was Phil's first introduction to life at sea. Following in Gopher's footsteps, Phil began his life with Radisson (now Regent) Seven Seas Cruises on Seven Seas Mariner's inaugural season as Night Auditor, in the Reception Team, and within 2 years has moved to Shore Excursions and "the best job onboard" as he proudly proclaims.

As Travel Concierge Manager, Phil researches and lectures on upcoming ports of call, provides the guests with information on excursion offerings, sightseeing suggestions, culture, history and geography. In port, he supervises and coordinates the excursions taken by our guests, and looks forward to meeting you during the voyage together with his team.

GENERAL SERVICE INFORMATION

CAPTAIN KNUT HANSSSEN MASTER OF SEVEN SEAS VOYAGER

As master of the vessel, Captain Knut Hanssen is ultimately responsible for the entire vessel operation on behalf of the Owners, Operators and Marine Authorities.

Captain Hanssen claims he went to sea in 1977 "by pure accident". After finishing high school, he wanted to have a look at the world, and a way to do that was to sign on as an apprentice on one of the cargo ships in North Sea trade.

He served his time in the Royal Norwegian Navy from 1979 until 1980, before finding his way back on bulk carriers and RoRo (Roll-On, Roll-Off) container ships in world-wide trade. In 1987, after rising through the ranks and finishing his final year at the Maritime Academy, he received his first command as Master of a general cargo ship in North Sea trade.

The weather in the North Sea is infamous, and the winter of 1989 to 1990 was a particularly bad one. "After what felt like a continuous 6-week storm, I said to myself there has to be an easier way of making a living, so when I was offered to join Song of Flower in Japan as Safety/Chief Officer in April 1990, I didn't think twice".

By 1992 he was promoted to Staff Captain on Song of Flower. In 1997 he left RSSC for a Master's position on high speed passenger ferries in the North Sea, running between Norway and Denmark, which he operated for two years full time and still does periodically during his 'vacations'.

By late 1998, he rejoined Radisson Seven Seas Cruises and Song of Flower as her Master, a position he held until he was asked to transfer to Radisson Diamond in early 2000.

Then, in 2003, he went on to be appointed Master of the newly launched Seven Seas Voyager. Knut, like all Captains, has a duty rotation of three months onboard and three months on leave. When he's not on board he spends his time at his home in Aalesund, Norway, where you may very well find him mountain hiking in the summer, and skiing in the winter. And, although he enjoys being home, Knut still likes to travel during his three months leave. He just doesn't go cruising, in case you were wondering...

Grand Circle South America – Seven Seas Mariner

If ever a continent had rhythm, it is South America. Sailing in six-star luxury aboard Seven Seas Mariner, admiring the wingspan of an Andean condor or the majesty of Chilean fjords from your own private balcony – it can't possibly get any better. Discover the dazzling desert escapes of the Atacama, the wildlife of Patagonia and the lush wilderness of the Amazon. South America – a land of stunning extremes: The world's highest waterfall, the world's longest mountain range, the world's driest desert, the world's largest rain forest. And if you love to study the past, visit some of the world's greatest archeological sites: Machu Picchu, Chan Chan, the Lord of Sipan, the Nazca Lines.

We are pleased to announce Seven Seas Mariner's 2008 Circle South America departing January 4, 2008 sailing from Ft. Lauderdale to Ft. Lauderdale. The 60-night circumnavigation is available in four segments as short as 12 nights. Segments can be combined – the choice is yours:

Segment 1 – Ft. Lauderdale to Callao (Lima), 12 nights, January 4, 2008

Segment 2 – Callao (Lima) to Buenos Aires, Argentina, 19 nights, January 16, 2008

Segment 3 – Buenos Aires to Manaus, Brazil, 17 nights, February 4, 2008

Segment 4 – Manaus, Brazil to Ft. Lauderdale, 12 nights, February 21, 2008

Segment 1 & segment 4 offer of a special, capacity-controlled air promotion that includes Free Economy airfare from Ft. Lauderdale/Miami or respectively Miami, or have a special reduced airfare if flying from other gateway cities, or a $700 per person air credit if booking cruise only. Please note, this offer is capacity-controlled and may be closing at any time, without prior notice.

For more information on South America cruises and all Regent Seven Seas Cruises, please contact your Cruise Consultant, Victoria, at her office on deck 5 or telephone extension 2480.

ASSISTANT CRUISE DIRECTOR

PAUL REYNOLDS

Paul heralds from south of London in the UK and started his professional career as a Musical Director, playing end of the pier Summer Seasons, Old Time Music Hall and pantomime. He soon moved into production work and co-founded the Upstage Production Company in the mid 90's, touring children's shows including Paddington Bear, the Duchess of York's Budgie and Winnie-the-Pooh, for which he also composed the music.

With a more classical training, Paul continues to play the church organ for services whenever he is at home but is always 'at home' playing piano. Recent engagements have included Musical Director and Conductor for six Musicals at Richmond Theatre, London, including 42nd Street, Oklahoma, Hello Dolly! and Oliver!, performances of Gilbert and Sullivan's The Mikado, appearances on BBC local radio and Channel 4 television's breakfast show.

In 2000, Paul became Director of Touring Theatre, Musical Director and Company Manager for Shakespeare 4 Kidz, responsible for a cast and crew of 21, presenting Musical Theatre versions of Shakespeare plays in theatres throughout the UK and Ireland. Introducing audiences to the stories of Shakespeare, Paul celebrated his 1000th performance with the company in January 2006. Arranging much of the music for the stage productions and accompanying CD, he was also Musical Director for the filming of Macbeth and A Midsummer Night's Dream and the award-winning Italian Shakespeare in Bologna, Italy. Paul's latest challenge in his exciting and always varied career; has brought him to Regent, where he was appointed Assistant Cruise Director in April, 2006.

KEEPING SEVEN SEAS VOYAGER SAILING

CHIEF ENGINEER GIOVANNI TROPEA

Hailing from the county of Genoa in the north of Italy, our Chief Engineer, Giovanni Tropea has always been interested in motor mechanics and marine technology. In 1987 he graduated as Chief Engineer after 5 intense years at the "Istituto Nautico San Giorgio" in Genova. Giovanni started to work at sea straight after his high school graduation as a Cadet Engineer on Tankers, Bulk Carrier and cargo ships. In 1994 he joined his first passenger ship as a 3rd Galley Engineer on the Carnival cruise ships were within 6 years he reached the position of Chief Engineer becoming the youngest Chief Engineer of Carnival fleet. Then he was involved with the building of a new Carnival ship in Finland. At the end of 2002 Giovanni joined Radisson Seven Seas Cruises. As 1st Engineer he was part of the building team of Seven Seas Voyager at the Mariotti Yard. Since that time he has ascended to the position of Chief Engineer on this beautiful vessel. As Chief Engineer aboard Seven Seas Voyager, Giovanni's job is, quite literally, to keep the ship sailing smoothly. Not only is he responsible for the operation of the ship's pod propulsion and electrical engines, he also directs a 35-man crew with a lengthy list of job responsibilities. He is also on stand-by in the ship's Engine Control Room each time the ship maneuvers in and out of port. When not at sea he likes to return home to Bolton, Lancashire England to be with his wife.

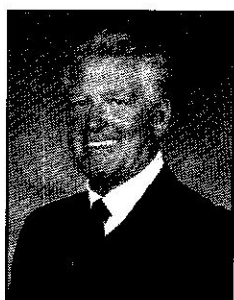

He is still an avid supporter of his hometown football team Genoa. He also has a love of traveling, enjoys fishing and gardening, but most of all loves the English country walks with his wife and Poppy the most spoilt beagle puppy in the north west of England.

CRUISE DIRECTOR LORRAINE BARRON

Lorraine has been at sea performing for thirteen years and now resides in South Carolina. She started out in the Entertainment field by obtaining a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Musical Theatre from the University of Arizona (during which she had the opportunity to study with the prestigious Royal Shakespeare Company). Afterwards, she headed straight to New York City where she spent seven years doing Regional Theatres, National Tours, Commercials, Spokes-modeling, Off-Off Broadway, and the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C.. Then, the sound of the ocean beckoned, so she packed her suitcase and came aboard the Cruise Industry. She has sailed around the world twice on Regent Seven Seas Cruises ships, Silversea Cruises, Celebrity Cruises, Norwegian Cruise Line and Cunard. She has been Cruise Director on Song of Flower, Paul Gauguin, and Radisson Diamond, Seven Seas Navigator, Seven Seas Mariner and is happy as a clam to be back on the Seven Seas Voyager! But the sea is not her only Love; Lorraine tied the marriage knot (at sea of course) with her husband, Dr. Bryan Barron seven years ago. She wishes everyone Smooth Sailings now and always!

STAFF CAPTAIN TEO SRBELIC

Teo was born in Split, a lovely city on the Dalmatian Coast, in Croatia. In 1995 Split celebrated the 1700 anniversary from the time the Roman Emperor, Diocletian, built his spectacular palace. After completing the mandatory education Teo attended The Economics High School, but soon realised that "the money business" was not what he wanted. Once he got his degree, he decided to attend the Nautical College and that proved to be the answer to his dreams. Teo had lots of opportunities to visit Split's shipyard and see the construction of new ships as his father worked there as Electrical Engineer. After getting his degree from the Nautical College Teo was ready and excited to start his career at sea. The first assignment was on a container ship as Deck Cadet. After successfully completing his training and getting his Officer's license Teo worked for several years on more container ships. After doing lots of Atlantic crossings Teo decided it was time for new and more exciting experiences so he decided to try the passenger ships. His first assignment was on R2 Renaissance Cruises where he quickly moved through the ranks and was promoted to Safety Officer. 9/11 caused the bankruptcy of the cruise line so Teo decided to join Seven Seas Voyager while the ship was still under construction at the shipyard in Genoa. He was offered the position as 2nd Officer, later on was promoted to Chief Officer, and then Safety Officer. Now Teo feels honored to be the Staff Captain of this beautiful ship he has been calling "home" for the past four years. Teo has a Master's License and is fully trained to take over the command. The Staff Captain is literally the Captain's "right hand" in charge of the safety and maintenance of the ship and ultimately responsible for the discipline of the crew and the security of the vessel.

When not at sea Teo enjoys spending time at home with his lovely wife, Renata, and his 2-year son, Jere. He also enjoys soccer and fishing and is always looking for new "fishing" tips!

HOTEL DIRECTOR ENGELBERT WARTENBERG

Engelbert Lainer Wartenberg was born and raised in Saalbach, Austria, a small skiing village. His ambition to become a ski racer was shattered by an unfortunate accident in the French Alps at a downhill race.

After recovering and after graduating from Hotel management school, Engelbert pursued his second dream, to see the world. He joined the five star cruise ship, the MS Vistafjord, from the Norwegian America line in Hamburg in 1977. Engelbert worked himself through the ranks, and when Cunard Line took over, he moved on by serving in every capacity in the Hotel department on all the ships, including the world's most famous cruise ship, the Queen Elizabeth 2. He served on the QE2 as Hotel Manager for nearly 10 years, which was "The biggest challenge and the most exciting time of my life".

In 1999, Engelbert was asked to join The Peter Deilmann Cruises in order to head the onboard management on the new ZDF Love Boat, the MS Deutschland to introduce the ultimate cruising experience for their passengers.

On July 4th 2006, Engelbert became part of the Regent family and served as Hotel Director on Seven Seas Mariner.

EVENING DRESS CODE
COUNTRY CLUB CASUAL

MONTE CARLO, MONACO
overnight | Sail: 11:00pm

BACK ON BOARD: 10:30pm

Monte Carlo MONACO

All of Monaco's international visitors seem to agree that the tiny nation is utterly seductive. A "chic" dream of perfection, the fairytale principality even looks the part. The Monegasque citizens adore the Royal Family and members are often in residence.

There is great confusion about the small country, so just to clarify the official name of the sovereign state is The Principality of Monaco. The principality, about the size of London's Hyde Park, consists of five departments. Monte Carlo, the most famous of them, was established and named by Prince Charles III in 1866. Waging that the pretty cliff top village would save his principality, he established a casino on the crag. News of the gaming house spread quickly and soon, people came to think of the country as Monte-Carlo, rather than Monaco - the two names have (erroneously) been used interchangeably.

Monaco-Ville, the original fortified city, is home to the Royal Family. In addition to the palace, the famous Oceanographic Museum and the Cathedral can be found in the district. Beyond and below Monaco-Ville, Fontvieille is home to the zoo and stadium. The department is especially remarkable since the entire lower section containing the stadium, Parc de Fontvieille and marina, was created by filling in more than 120 feet of sea with rock and earth. The reclaimed land represents 20% of Monaco's total landmass. Fontvieille also has its own tiny marina, though the yachts that bob alongside its docks are anything but tiny.

Monaco's story begins in the shadows of time. The earliest visitors were probably Ligurians, but there was no attraction for tribes seeking arable land and shelter. The "land" was an unwelcoming rock, but evidence suggests the cliffs were possibly used for human sacrifice. The period leading up to the Grimaldi dynasty was not uneventful, but it was the House of Grimaldi that turned the single square mile into some of the world's most prized real estate. Monaco's Palace of the Prince was the target of many attacks and much effort went into fortifying the structure. The Grimaldi's had to act with great diplomatic agility in order to maintain the tiny principality.

CRUISE CONSULTANT

VICTORIA GALLEGOS

Victoria Gallegos is of Spanish ancestry but has recently been making her home between Australia, Hawaii and New York City. Victoria's studies were in Linguistics and this definitely has come in handy in her successful career in sales. Living in New York City, she made a name for herself in the high-end world of fashion. Her sales at PRADA were the highest worldwide, gaining the recognition of Miuccia Prada herself. This inevitably led to her becoming their Corporate Sales Trainer in the U.S. and Personal Shopper and stylist to such celebrities like Madonna, Jennifer Lopez, Wayne Gretzky, Jerry Bruckheimer and Arnold Schwarzenegger, to name just a few.

Victoria also spent time with GUCCI and BVLGARI, the contemporary, Italian jeweller on Fifth Avenue. They knew of her love for travel, high sales and facility for languages, which prompted them to offer her a management position on board a well-known luxury cruise liner. She managed the Bvlgari Boutique and with the itinerary that it offered her, she was able to see different parts of the world on a number of occasions. Her time at sea allowed her to continue her adoration to seek and conquer new horizons. All of this led her to pursue a career with another luxury cruise line. She is thrilled to be here with Regent Seven Seas, where she faces the exciting new challenge as Cruise Consultant.

Our Cruise Consultant Victoria (her office is located on Deck 5) is able to provide guests with detailed information on all RSSC ships and future cruises – plus – she will assist you to make your next cruise reservation during your stay onboard. Extensive travel experiences, and direct connections to the home office in Fort Lauderdale and Reservations in Omaha, allow Victoria to provide you with up-to-the-minute information on availability and the latest itineraries.

"And most recently Victoria made her home on our sister ship Seven Seas Mariner as she managed the Seven Seas Society loyalty programme during the amazing South American circumnavigation"

HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGER

TIM SHEPPARD

The most frequent question asked is "What is a Human Resources Manager and what do they do?" Onboard a ship such as Seven Seas Voyager the HR Manager is responsible for the overall welfare of all 450 crewmembers, from the point they arrive onboard to the point they get home at the end of a contract.

Onboard the HR Manager co-ordinates all crew joining or leaving the ship, including cabin allocation, negotiating lengths of contracts and linking communication of crew matters onboard with our shore-side offices. Crew entertainment and welfare is also a large part of Tim's role making sure that life onboard is as fun and pleasant as possible. Lastly coaching, training and overseeing the development, promotion and progression of shipboard personnel is also very important. This position is a relatively new position to Ships, RSSC were in fact the first company in Cruise Industry to implement such a position with the launch of the Seven Seas Mariner back in 2001. In fact Tim was the first permanent HR Manager onboard Seven Seas Mariner joining the company back in July 2001 and since then has also worked onboard Seven Seas Navigator and was part of the original launch team of this ship bringing her and all her crew out from the shipyard back in March 2003.

Tim has a Degree in International Hotel Management and has worked in the hospitality industry since the age of 13, working in all of the hotel related departments over the course of his career to date. Tim is originally from the South West of England living near a popular tourist city called Bath, which you may well have visited. Having returned last year to the company after a short break away, Tim feels that onboard he can combine his job which he really enjoys with his other interests, travel, photography and having a good time!

Although Tim's job means that much of his time is concentrated behind the scenes he very much hopes that he has the opportunity to meet with you at one of the many cocktail parties onboard, at dinner or even whilst around and about in public areas over the course of the forthcoming weeks.

ART DIRECTOR

EVENING DRESS CODE
COUNTRY CLUB CASUAL

LIVORNO, ITALY
Dock: 8:00am | Sail: 7:00pm

BACK ON BOARD: 6:30pm

Florence's famous old bridge is indeed the city's oldest and in fact, it was the only one to survive the destruction of 1944. Sadly the houses at either end did not survive. Today the bridge is lined with shops and crowds of people.

LIVORNO, ITALY

Livorno ("leghorn"), is the gateway to Florence, Pisa and the many treasures of Tuscany. Though the Romans established the port, it was not fully developed until Florence's Medici family sought to transform it into a thriving commercial harbour. Heavy WWII bombing destroyed most of the ancient city, but today it is a typical seaside city with fine shopping and strolling opportunities. Tuscany's wealth in art and history awaits just inland.

Pisa is the site of the famous Piazza dei Miracoli where the Leaning Tower tilts precariously. A little further from Livorno, the Tuscan gem, Florence (Firenze) is hailed as one of the world's most resplendent cities. Visitors are overwhelmed by the city's public art, much of it in the buildings, statuary, streets, and fountains. Do not miss the opportunity to visit this remarkable city — even if you have visited it before. It is possible to spend years in the open-air showcase of the Italian Renaissance and never see it all.

Not far from Livorno are the smaller medieval towns of Lucca and San Gimignano, also full of beautiful art. It is difficult to choose, but any day spent in Tuscany rewards you with a taste of the true art of living. It is not possible to see everything in a single day, and you will surely end your jaunt exhausted, but well satisfied. Remember that art and beauty need not be famous to be wonderful. Art is everywhere, even on the streets. Perhaps, especially for the romantically inclined, a return visit will be inspired.

LOCAL HOSPITALITY DESK

FUTURE CRUISES

DISCOVER TAHITI – BY GAUGUIN

Once upon a time, it was only a few intrepid artists and adventurers who dared to sail off halfway around the globe to discover the legendary beauty of Tahiti. Today's visitors fly there in just 8 hours from Los Angeles, and on arrival they may find one of the world's great cruise experiences on board Paul Gauguin. Part of our six-star fleet, Paul Gauguin is not just the most experienced cruise vessel in French Polynesia, it is the only vessel in the ultra-luxury category to make its home here.

In addition to the year-round program of seven-night cruises among the beautiful Society Islands, we also offer guests the opportunity to visit the outer archipelagoes of this South Pacific paradise with our special 10-, 11- or 14-night cruises that explore the remote Marquesas Islands, Tuamotus, Australs & Cook Islands. Four of our 2007 voyages are featuring new itineraries to this already expansive list of South Pacific destinations - Fiji & Tonga!

For more information on South Pacific cruises and all Regent Seven Seas Cruises, please contact your Cruise Consultant, Victoria, at her office on deck 5 or telephone extension 2480.

SOCIAL HOSTESS

ELSA McCLEAN

Elsa's passion for travel and adventure began at 6 months of age when she flew to Holland with her mother to visit her Dutch grandparents and cousins for the first time. The travel bug set in deep with a year in Hong Kong at the age of 11 followed by a year in Argentina as an exchange student at the age of 16 where she learnt to speak Spanish fluently.

Having developed a fascination for romance languages also, Elsa went on to study "Spanish Translation and Cultural Anthropology" at university to further develop her understanding of the ancient cultures of the Americas. Now hooked, Elsa went to live in Playa del Carmen, Mexico for two years working as a dancer and acrobat in exclusive resorts. This experience served as a platform into the world of cruise ships, and within 3 weeks of returning home from Mexico Elsa was employed by Royal Caribbean International for her first contract at sea as Cruise Staff. She consequently worked her way through 3 vessels, ending her time with the company as Social Hostess on the Adventure of the Seas with a guest count of 3,500. Though the experience was fruitful and she developed a soft spot for the Caribbean islands and their people, Elsa decided to have a break from ships and the hectic pace of being onboard such a big vessel.

Elsa decided she wanted to learn another language and so landed herself a job with Nova, a large Japanese company, and went to work as an English conversation teacher in the small town of Ube, 100km from Hiroshima. After 7 months she had gained a reasonable command of the language and developed a great respect and admiration for the Japanese culture and was ready for her next adventure.

Spending only 3 weeks at home, and reminding herself what her family looked like, Elsa jumped on a plane for Florence, Italy where she spent the Italian summer living in a castle on the beach in Tuscany improving her Italian language skills. Soon the call of the conch shell was beckoning so Elsa started looking to ships again for employment. Not wanting to return to the large vessels, she was absolutely delighted to be offered a position with Regent as Social Hostess aboard Seven Seas Voyager.

As Social Hostess Elsa wears many hats and can constantly be seen fleetingly around the ship, hoping to make your vacation extra special.

ART DIRECTOR

PETER MAX ART EXHIBITION

Peter Max is one of the most important artists of our time. He evolved from a visionary pop artist of the 1960's to a master of neo-expressionism, and his techniques of vibrant color have become a part of the contemporary American culture. "America's Painter Laureate" work has touched an audience that can be counted in the millions.

AJACCIO BIRTHPLACE OF NAPOLEON

Ajaccio, Corsica is a lovely pastel-coloured walking town and the birthplace of Napoleon Bonaparte. But don't let on that you know that after Napoleon became emperor, he never once returned. This fact is a well-kept secret and especially surprising since several of Ajaccio's museums and statues have been dedicated to his honour.

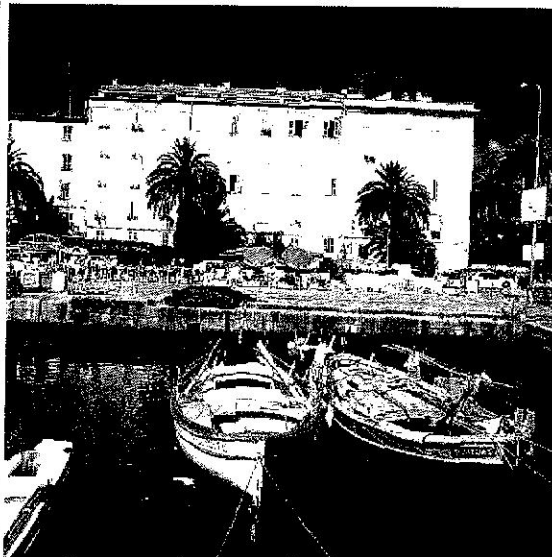

Ajaccio is above all a unique and magical place. The town rises up from one of the most beautiful gulfs in the world, set against a backdrop of mountains that are often snow-capped until the spring. The beauty of the area is matched by the mildness of the climate and the "Ajaccian art of living". Bright colours, radiant light, delicious cooking smells, smiles of the Ajaccian people - Ajaccio knows how to charm you from the moment you arrive. In the morning, you can soak up the atmosphere of the city by strolling around the old port, through the lively markets and through the narrow streets of the noble houses in the old town. During the day, enjoy the pleasures of white sandy beaches where you can swim until the end of autumn.

Why not explore the shores of the Gulf of Ajaccio? To the north, the coastal road passes in front of the Marinella beach, as feted by Tino Rossi, which will lead you to Parata point that is overlooked by a Genoese watchtower. A path leads you to the end of the point from where you can admire the Iles Sanguinaires and access the beaches of the large and small Capo di Feno. The turquoise waters and wild landscape make this place a favourite with surfers and it is sure to transport you miles away from the hustle and bustle of city life. To reach the southern coastline and the seaside resort of Porticcio, you can choose between the coastal road or a sea shuttle. With its three valleys, three rivers, overlooked by two Genoese watchtowers, the whole of the southern coast is a fantastic place to visit and an ideal spot for getting away from it all.

While Corsica was living drama after another, falling under the blows of the invaders and rising to tear itself, Ajaccio led an almost quiet life. Until its conquest by Sampiero Corso in 1553, it was reserved to the Genoese.

Finally in 1592, Corsican set there. Ajaccio considerably grew in the 18th century and inherited the title of capital of Corsica. Then the city grew. Men shaped it according to his needs and not only to his desires anymore.

TONIGHT'S ENTERTAINMENT

KENNY SMILES

"The Mad Welshman"

Comedy Vocal Entertainer
Accompanied by The Voyager Quintet

With over 39 years in the entertainment business, Welsh Man Kenny Smiles has done it all. 62 TV shows under his belt and 51 BBC programs. Kenny went in to the Theater, performing, writing, directing and producing 5 national shows in the UK. He was awarded "Entertainer of the year" and prior to this was runner-up 3 years running. He has made 11 singing albums and he had a number one hit in his country pushing Abba to second place. Twenty years ago he came to the cruise industry entertaining the vacationing Americans. It was his fellow entertainers and musicians who rightly named him the "Mad Welshman." Although Kenny's roots are in Wales, he now lives on his scenic ranch in the beautiful Ozark mountains where he spends his time off from entertaining. He joined Regent in January 1997 and is now contracted through to the end of 2007.

CIRCLES OF INTEREST & SPOTLIGHT PROGRAMS

Whether your passion is history, the performing arts or photography, you can explore the world through your own personal lens with Regent's Circles of Interest<sup>SM</sup> programs. You'll have access to unique experiences on board and on shore that provide the opportunity to discover a destination through a lens of particular interest, with the insights of an expert guest host and the camaraderie of a smaller community of guests who share your interests.

In addition, some cruises feature Spotlight thematic programs. These cruises offer a broad view of specific interests and include activities open to all guests of the voyage. Of course, with each spin, the world changes and our Circles of Interest program will continue to evolve and expand in scope. Our goal is to provide the most unique, individual experiences both on our ships and in our hotels, and link them ship-to-shore. Regent Seven Seas Cruises ... Luxury Goes Exploring.

For more information on Circles of Interest and Spotlight programs, see Cruise Consultant Victoria in her office located on Deck 5 or telephone ext. 2480.

FOOD & BEVERAGE MANAGER

FRANCK GALZY

Franck was born in Angers, in the northwest of France. His family owned a small restaurant, "Pub St. Aubin", and growing up in the beautiful Loire valley surrounded by picturesque vineyards and assisting his father throughout the years, was a perfect environment to embark on a career in Hotel Management.

Surprisingly, he began his formal education in Electronic Maintenance, which was short lived. He found himself turning away from the world of volts and amps for more satisfying subjects in food and wine. Graduating from the Sommelier School in Angers provided Franck with the expertise, as well as an amazing opportunity to travel outside of France. His journeys took him to Chester, U.K. where he spent two years at the famous Crabwall Manor.

Upon joining Radisson Seven Seas Cruises, now Regent, Franck was introduced to service in a "Six Star" environment, where he quickly made his way through the ranks from Head Waiter, then Sommelier to Head Sommelier, Bar Manager, and Asst. Provision Master to Asst. Food and Beverage Manager whilst rotating amongst the entire fleet. Now Franck also acts as relief Food and Beverage Manager.

We have been fortunate to have him as part of the Regent family for 6 years; most recently coordinating special events during our "World Cruise", "Circle Pacific" and "Circumnavigation of South America" cruises.

"I've discovered that I enjoy the creative process, the hands on preparation as well as overseeing each project's completion."

As a highly motivated and experienced professional, Franck has worked hard to achieve both team and personal goals.

SEVEN SEAS CRUISES

SEVEN SEAS VOYAGER

SATURDAY, MAY 19, 2007

EVENING DRESS CODE
COUNTRY CLUB CASUAL

SORRENTO, ITALY
Anchor: 12noon | overnight

SORRENTO COAST OF AMALFI

Italy's Campania region is just south of Lazio, the Roman province and marks the beginning of the country's rich south. The coastline ranks with the world's most spectacular and the people seem to have a particularly close connection to their land. Traditional fishing villages still thrive, seemingly untouched by time, and even the bustling capital of Naples maintains the charming atmosphere of a small town. Romans have always viewed the region with tacit admiration - in fact, the name of the district is a shortened form, of the affectionate Latin designation campania felix ("land of happiness"). Perhaps the happiest part of the happy province is the Sorrento Peninsula. Unquestionably one of the most magnificent places on earth, it's relaxed lifestyle defies comparison. Even upon arrival at the tender landing, visitors often notice how unhurried the pace of life is on the peninsula. The warm moist Mediterranean air and seductive characteristic charm completes the alluring scene.

The Amalfi Coast, Pompeii, Herculaneum, the legendary Isle of Capri are all at your fingertips - near, yet far enough from the grasp of bustling Naples to make the huge City seem only as a foreign place on a distant horizon.

Sorrento's main district is perched above the marina on a cliff. Buses and taxis depart from its central Piazza Tasso to take eager visitors to the fabled Amalfi Coast or to drive back to the mainland where excavations have revealed the remains of two ancient cities buried under Pompeii. Sorrento is a quiet place. It's beaches are small and the atmosphere is utterly charming. Be sure to venture at least a little way out of the captivating town, however. The narrow roads that wind along both sides of the slender peninsula offer breathtaking views - especially the famed southern route known as the Amalfi Drive. Daring Italian visitors might be seen on rented Vespas along the coast, but scooters and motorcycles are not recommended for novice visitors.

If you have never seen the celebrated Isle of Capri, you may want to cross over on a local boat for a visit. With a permanent population of only 8,000 people, it is located at the southern end of the Bay of Naples not far from Sorrento. The island, just four miles long and two miles wide, is in fact a peninsular extension. It was probably connected to Sorrento at one time, but centuries of seismic activity and rising sea levels have changed things. A five-minute walk from the tender landing at Sorrento brings you to the ferry dock where hydrofoils jet periodically to Capri. Capri visitors should bear in mind that hydrofoils are generally reliable, but there have been delays in the past caused by engine breakdowns. If something goes awry, operators only shrug their shoulders and set to repairing the trouble, perhaps after first taking a cappuccino or granite break. In southern Italy, things happen that way. Life marches along at it's own pace, with or without human assistance.

ITALIAN BBQ

Come and join us for freshly cooked pizza, or simply indulge in the flavours of Italy with our mouth watering pastas.

11:15am - 1:30pm
Pool deck (11)
(weather permitting)

LOCAL HOSPITALITY DESK

A representative from Sorrento will board the ship from 12:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m. They will provide local port information and maps. The hospitality desk will be located at the Travel Concierge desk on Deck 5.

FEAST YOUR EYES ON EUROPE

Like a precious scroll unfurling ancient secrets before your eyes, Europe reveals itself in a thousand great and small images that never seem to repeat themselves. In 2007, Seven Seas Voyager and Seven Seas Navigator will call at legendary ports from one end of Europe to the other exploring the sceptered British Isles, the breathtaking fjords of Norway, the classic capitals of the Baltic and Russia, and the ancient glories of the Mediterranean and Greek Isles. Greece, Byzantium, the sun-blessed coasts of the Adriatic Sea, the Black Sea, Cote d'Azur and Iberia.

Select spring sailings offer 20% Seven Seas Society savings and on top of all - FLY FREE or take $1,000 off your Cruise Fare! Please note - this is a time limited offer.

For more information on these cruises and all Regent Seven Seas Cruises stop by to see our Cruise Consultant, Victoria Gallegos, in her office on Deck 5 or telephone ext. 2480.

SECOND ENGINEER

JOANNE KEELEY

Hailing from the county of West Midlands in England, our 2nd Engineer, Joanne Keeley has always been interested in the engineering and travel. A former soldier, Joanne decide back in 2003 to follow in her fathers footsteps and train in engineering.

In 2006 she graduated as the top engineer cadet from Warsash Maritime Academy" in Southampton, winning the "Sword of Honour". During her cadetship she spent time onboard both Seven Seas Voyager and Seven Seas Navigator. Joanne started to work at sea straight after graduation as second engineer onboard Seven Seas Navigator, but feels she has come back home now to Seven Seas Voyager.

Being a watch keeping officer onboard involves monitoring all the mechanical equipment from the Control Room to ensure the safety and comfort of the guests and crew at all times.

An avid football fan, Joanne enjoys supporting her hometown football club Wolverhampton Wanderers and rates a recent meeting with the club chairman as one of the best days of her life.

Treasures of CAMPANIA

As you journey down the fabled Amalfi Coast, the route takes you past rocky cliffs plunging into the sea and small boats lying in sandy coves like brightly colored fish. Erosion has contorted the rocks into shapes resembling figures from mythology and hollowed out fairy grottoes where the air is turquoise and the water an icy blue. White villages dripping with flowers nestle in coves or climb like vines up the steep, terraced hills. Lemon trees abound, loaded with blossom or fruit—and netting in winter to protect the fruit. The inhabitants jest that they look after their lemons better than their children. The road must have a thousand turns, each with a different view, on its dizzying 69-km (43-mi) journey from Sorrento to Salerno. Venture north, and you can fall under the spell of Pompeii's silent streets, frozen in time under the dust of 25 centuries.

A busy commercial center with a population of 10,000 to 20,000, ancient Pompeii covered about 160 acres on the seaward end of the fertile Sarno Plain. On a quiet backstreet, all you need is a little imagination to sense the shadows palpably filling the dark corners, to hear the ancient pipe's falsetto and the tinny clash of cymbals, to envision a rain of rose petals gently covering a Roman senator's dinner guests.

As you enter the ruins at Porta Marina, make your way to the Foro (Forum), which served as Pompeii's cultural, political, and religious center. Fronted by an elegant three-column portico on the eastern side of the forum is the Macellum, the covered meat and fish market dating to Augustan times. Worshippers once crowded the Tempio di Giove (Temple of Jupiter), at the northern end of the Forum. On the southwestern corner is the Basilica, the city's law court and the economic center; the Roman basilica design was the model for early Christian churches. The Anfiteatro (Amphitheater) was the ultimate in entertainment for local Pompeians and offered a gamut of experiences.

John Steinbeck's observation about Positano, a village of white Moorish-style houses clinging to slopes around a small sheltered bay, still applies: "Positano bites deep. It is a dream place that isn't quite real when you are there and becomes beckoningly real after you have gone." Be prepared to negotiate the daunting scalinelle (little stairways), or ride the municipal bus, which makes a loop through the town every half hour.

Capri is a Moorish opera set of shiny white houses, tiny squares, and narrow medieval alleyways hung with flowers. The island's rare and delicious white wine is sensuous and intoxicating.

On arrival at the port, pick up a map at the tourist office and take the cog railway to Capri Town, perched some 450 feet above the harbor. Window-shop in expensive boutiques along Via Vittorio Emanuele, which leads south toward the many-domed Certosa di San Giacomo.

When the Grotta Azzurra was discovered in 1826 by the Polish poet August Kopisch and Swiss artist Ernest Fries, Capri became a tourist haven. The water's extraordinary sapphire color is caused by a hidden opening in the rock that refracts the light. Marina Grande.

Amalfi's main historical sight is its Duomo (also known as Cattedrale di Sant'Andrea), which shows an interesting mix of Moorish and early Gothic influences. You're channeled first into the adjoining Chiostro del Paradiso (Paradise Cloister), one of the architectural treasures of southern Italy.

The Valle dei Mulini (Valley of the Mills), uphill from town, was for centuries Amalfi's center for papermaking. Though most of the mills have closed, the paper samples, tools of the trade, old machinery, and audiovisual presentation at the Museo della Carta (Museum of Paper, $) are all enlightening.

CAVIAR WITH BLINIS AND CHAMPAGNE BREAKFAST

As a special treat for our guests, our Food and Beverage team will be serving caviar and Champagne breakfast in both Compass Rose and La Veranda restaurants. This will take place during the breakfast opening hours of both restaurants.

LOCAL HOSPITALITY DESK

A representative from Sorrento will board the ship from 8:30 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. They will provide local port information and maps. The hospitality desk will be located at the Travel Concierge desk on Deck 5.

SHOPPING CONSULTANT

NICOLE KASHIAN

It was love at first Fendi...the first time Nicole set eyes on the sleek curves of the Italian Designed luxury "F" logo handbag and the lifestyle it represented—her love affair with luxury began. Unsure of how to begin her training as a shopping guru, Nicole took to the streets - Michigan Avenue & Oak Street that is - and headed for Chicago's most opulent retail shopping Mecca's.

After completing her training on the "magnificent mile," Nicole left her "windy city" hometown for the collegiate halls of Marquette University. While at Marquette, Nicole brought a taste of Hollywood to the great American Midwest by her many appearances on MUTV, where Nicole hosted game shows, anchored the news and even delivered the weather with professional pizzazz. After graduating, Nicole was quickly recruited to combine her talents and produce national special events for upscale Chicago companies - including Marshall Field's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Nicole performed countless duties, from achieving top sponsorship sales, hiring and training, to recruiting celebrities like Jeremy Piven to make guest star appearances, procuring award-winning talent for events and even assistant producing live TV broadcasts.

Two years later, Nicole was ready for more. After Nicole's first New Year's Eve cruise with her family in 2000, she found the perfect career match. It wasn't long before Nicole advanced her career path, backpacked through Europe and boarded her first cruise ship as a Port Shopping Consultant in 2002. In over five years, Nicole has taught and inspired many a shopping maven on a myriad of cruise lines such as Holland America, Costa, Carnival, Princess, and is thrilled to join Regent to launch its new European Shopping Program. Nicole is ecstatic to be traveling Europe again, reveling and revealing all the shopping marvels it holds.

PLEASE RETURN BOOKS, GAMES & DVD'S

The Library, located on Deck 6 mid-ship, operates on an honor system. With consideration for the enjoyment of all our guests, please return borrowed books and board games to the Library after viewing, so others may also enjoy them. Please note that DVD discs borrowed by disembarking guests are due to be returned to the Reception desk, Deck 5, by 11:00 p.m. on May 20th otherwise an overdue fee of $50.00 will be applied to your shipboard account automatically.

IN-SUITE SAFE

Please check that you have removed the contents of your safe and leave the safe door open. We regret to advise you that Regent Seven Seas Cruises cannot be responsible for lost or misplaced valuables.

BATHROBES & UMBRELLAS

Please remember that the bathrobes and umbrellas provided in your suite are for your use during your stay on board SEVEN SEAS VOYAGER. Should you wish to purchase any of the suite amenities as a souvenir, kindly contact your Stewardess for the sale prices.

LOST & FOUND

If you find that you are missing something, try asking at the Reception Desk, Deck 5 as it could have been handed in.

SETTLEMENT OF ONBOARD ACCOUNTS

Your final statement will be delivered to your suite in the early morning of May 21st. Please review your statement to ensure that all charges are correct. If you have already had your credit card registered during check-in or at Reception during the cruise, the amount of your final invoice will be automatically billed to your credit card. If you have not yet registered your credit card you are kindly requested to do so at your earliest convenience, in order to facilitate express checkout. This will avoid any delay in your disembarkation. If paying by cash or traveler's checks, please do so at the Reception Desk by 10:00 p.m. on May 20th, on the evening prior to disembarkation.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

We kindly ask all guests to bring the suite keys to the gangway when leaving the vessel and to have them out and ready for security to swipe.
