CONRAD MALDIVES: #1 Luxury Resort in the Maldives (Amazing Expensive !)

Maldives: Indian Ocean Paradise

Epic drone footage of the Conrad Maldives during New Years 2019-2020. Views of sunset over the water villa. This is a vloggers paradise. Incredible sunsets, crystal clear water, even sharks swimming beneath your glass floor villa, this resort has it all. Cost of admission is a astronomical $8,000 per night (drinks not included). Of course you can stay at the underwater villa for up to $40,000 per night.

Pro Tips:

Shot on a DJI Mavic Air. Short video edited on iPhone12 Pro. For travel tips visit our website at Cruising Review.

Cruising Review travels the world to capture the best sunsets, resorts, cruises, and experiences. CR provides factual reviews. If a guest experience goes wrong, we try to work with the staff to remedy the poor experience. We do this to encourage systematic change (we don't do it for free stays, points, or any reimbursement). We are very transparent in our reviews, and hope you appreciate that, since your time and money are valuable assets. Most travelers have limited time, and want to spend it enjoying the experience, not dealing with experience or infrastructure issues.

UAE Amazing Markets: cruise excursion (MSC Bellissima)

Wonderful markets of UAE from shore excursion of MSC Bellissima. Dubai - Muscat - Abu Dhabi - Oman - Qatar

BURGENSTOCK RESORT: Luxury Resort in Europe (Amazing!) #shorts

Visit in 2019 to the amazing Burgenstock Resort above Lake Lucerne, Switzerland. Also see the link below to the Growing Up Without Borders video (which includes me).

ASPEN Colorado: Maroon Bells (June 2020)

Hailed as the most photographed mountains in North America, Maroon Bells, which is just outside of Aspen, is one of the prettiest locations in the United States. The area opened up June 8th, and do you need reservations to go there by vehicle. If you're biking up you do not need reservations. I rented a E-bike and treked the almost 10 miles without too much effort. The ride is just beautiful. As with last year, there was evidence of avalanche damage to many groves of Aspen. While hiking up the trail I saw two moose. Just a beautiful summer solstice weekend.

PRIVATE JET: Barcelona to Zurich by #1 Jet (over the Swiss Alps)

PRIVATE JET: Barcelona to Zurich over the Swiss Alps BCN-ZRH

Epic $10,000 jet charter flight from Barcelona, Spain over the Swiss alps to Zurich, Switzerland. The story begins after the Sky Princess cruise in the Mediterranean in November 2019. For this charter, I invited the YouTube group Growing Up Without Borders (@Growing Up Without Borders) to join me for the flight to Zurich.

The charter jet started that morning in the UK, did a passenger drop off in Nice, France, then flew over to Barcelona to meet us.

About the jet: This two pilot, 6-7 passenger jet was a Nextant XT (completely rebuilt Beechjet 400A/XP with Williams FJ44- 3AP engines and the Rockwell Collins Pro Line 21 integrated avionics suite).

About the flight:

Duration: 1:20

Passengers: 6

Lunch: Box lunch catered

Beverages: Wine, champagne, soda, water

Pro Tips:

Charter rates vary from broker to broker. Get a few quotes, or choose from a reliable jet charter agent. We use a group based in Switzerland called D-jet. Most jets that are chartered cannot be scheduled directly with the owner-operator of the jet, you will have to go through a agent. For travel tips visit our website at Cruising Review.

TAHITI - THE BRANDO - CONRAD BORA BORA: The Worlds Best (#shorts) Helicopter Charter

Epic $8,000 helicopter charter flight from the most exclusive South Pacific eco-resort near Tahiti called The Brando, and then over to the Conrad Hilton in Bora Bora (about an hour north). Additional drone footage of the Presidential Over Water Villa at the Conrad Bora Bora in French Polynesia. At this time the Conrad Bora Bora does not have a helipad, so you will land at the airport, then take a boat from the airport to the resort.

MALDIVES PARADISE $8,000 Per Night: Conrad Maldives

Epic over-the-water-villa footage of the Conrad Maldives, during our New Years 2019 -2020 visit. Views of sunset are from the west-facing bungalow. This is a vloggers paradise. Incredible sunsets, crystal clear water, even sharks swimming beneath your glass floor villa, this resort has it all.

Cost of admission is a astronomical $8,000 per night (drinks not included). Of course you can stay at the underwater villa for up to $40,000 per night. This is a short vlog of our stay there. Pro Tip: Book lowest category and upgrade or wait for deals on arrival. You can get a huge discount on the undersea villa Muraka if you inquire about deals, and get for around $10,000 per night versus $40,000 per night (without all the frills).

SWISS ALPS BY HELICOPTER: Tour the Matterhorn (via Air Zermatt)

Epic aerial footage of the top of the Matterhorn by helicopter. See the stunning views you can only get from Air Zermatt. If you ever visit the charming Swiss village of Zermatt, Switzerland, I recommend staying at the Riffelalp Resort (high above the village mid-way up the Gornergrat) and taking a helicopter tour of the Swiss alps. I have even chartered Air Zermatt to fly me directly to the Burgenstock Resort high above Lucerne, Switzerland.

MALDIVES DRONE ATTACK: Beauty Captured (Amazing #1 Drone Footage)

Epic drone footage of the Conrad Maldives during New Years 2019-2020. Views of sunset over the water villa. This is a vloggers paradise. Incredible sunsets, crystal clear water, even sharks swimming beneath your glass floor villa, this resort has it all. Cost of admission is a astronomical $8,000 per night (drinks not included). Of course you can stay at the underwater villa for up to $40,000 per night.

MALDIVES SHARK FRENZY: Shark Feeding (Conrad Maldives) #shorts

Shark Feeding Frenzy at the Conrad Maldives

Fun feeding the sharks at the Conrad Maldives.

The staff uses left over fish bits to feed the sharks at 1:30pm. Most of the sharks are less than one meter in length, and most are black tip reef sharks (not harmful).

We put our GoPro Hero7 at the end of a pole to get the shark feeding frenzy footage, which dramatically shows the sharks in their natural element (aside from the chumming) feeding into a frenzy.

Was fun to watch the beautiful sharks, which are brutally and routinely killed for their fins (shark fin soup) in many Asian countries. We need to stop this slaughter of an important element of our ecosystem. Sharks are considered a vital part of the ocean (it's nature's garbage disposal machine by eating other wounded fish and animals).

Please help protect the shark, and stop eating any shark fin soup, or shark meat or animal products.

Plastic Straws ? It's a joke and mis-direct from the fishing industry. Fishing nets kill more fish, whales, dolphins, turtles, and wildlife than anything else combined.

MALDIVES MOST EXPENSIVE: Conrad Maldives (Ithaa Undersea) #shorts

MALDIVES MOST EXPENSIVE underwater restaurant. Drinks not included.

The $240 a plate lunch at the Ithaa Undersea Restaurant at the Conrad Maldives is a once-in-a-lifetime bucket-list item. Drinks are not included. At 16 feet below the clear aquarium fish tropical lagoon, the worlds first undersea restaurant is made from 4 inch thick clear acrylic (made in Colorado) that was built and shipped from Singapore as one 275 ton module (15 feet x 27 feet).

SOUTH PACIFIC MAGIC: At the Conrad Bora Bora Nui (#shorts)

Magic is all over the world. You just have to go seek it, to discover it. While it may seem that your freedom is captive, it is times like these where your creativity will set you free. Ne laissez pas le temps emporter la chose la plus précieuse que vous possédez, vos rêves.
